

The MRH Sports Medicine Symposium 2002 is bringing renowned experts together to enhance participants' knowledge in the dynamic field of sports medicine.

The objective of this series is to present the latest advances in a wide range of sports medicine topics. This will provide professionals with the ability to improve their care of athletes.

Jerry Greenspan, MSE, MS, PT
Has presented the following at the “2002 Sports Medicine Symposium”
at

King's Island Resort and Conference Center
King's Island, Ohio

Chain Reaction: Lower Extremity Movement

Strong Medicine: Choosing the Best Exercise